

Data Sheet

BATTEN

- A batten is a thin horizontal strip of solid material enclosed in a heat-welded pocket.
- Battens are used to prevent the fabric from curling or sagging on large shades.
- The shade can be custom designed so the battens strategically align with horizontal mullions.